About the Cover
The Schizophrenia Bulletin features art done by current and former mental hospital patients. The painting that appears on the cover of this issue was sent to us by Professor Niels Reisby, Professor of Psychiatry at the psychiatric hospital in Arhus, Risskov, Denmark. The artist, who is known as “The Glazier,” was one of the most psychotic and gifted psychiatric painters in Denmark. Professor Reisby has provided the following description of the painting and the artist: “The Glazier” was committed to the long-stay mental hospital in central Copenhagen, Sankt Hans Hospital, in 1918 at the age of 40. The artist stayed in the hospital until his death nearly 40 years later. Most of his time he spent in isolation, diligently working in a small garden house, where he established his “studio.” He collected all his own materials: pieces of glass, wood, tin, wire, canvases, colors, etc. The artist is known to have stated that he felt his work was a duty, and that he “hoped to help mankind.”
